13.1.4 The required amount of payment in lieu of notice must equal or exceed the total of all amounts that, if the employee's employment had continued until the end of the required period of notice, the employer would have become liable to pay to the employee because of the employment continuing during that period. That total must be calculated on the basis of:

37.8 Time off instead of payment for overtime

- 37.8.1 Despite clause 37.2 an employee may choose, with the consent of the employer, to take time off instead of payment for overtime at a time or times agreed with the employer. This agreement must be in writing. The employee must take the time off within four weeks of working overtime.
- 37.8.2 If an employee takes time off instead of payment for overtime then the amount of time is taken to be equivalent to the pay the employee would otherwise have received for working overtime.
- 37.8.3 If requested by an employee an employer must within one week of receiving a request pay the employee for any overtime worked. The employee must be paid at overtime rates.

PART 7 - LEAVE AND PUBLIC HOLIDAYS

38. ANNUAL LEAVE

38.1 Period of leave

- 38.1.1 A period of 28 consecutive days' leave shall be allowed annually to an employee after twelve months' continuous service (less the period of annual leave as an employee on weekly hiring).
- 38.1.2 An employer may reach agreement with the majority of employees concerned to convert the entitlements in clause 38.1.1 or clause 34.16 to an hourly entitlement (i.e. 152 hours for a full time employee) for administrative ease.

38.2 Public holidays excluded

- 38.2.1 The period of annual leave shall not include public holidays under clause 42 observed on working days but shall include all other non-working days.
- 38.2.2 If any public holiday under clause 42 falls within an employee's period of annual leave and is observed on a day which, in the case of that employee, would have been an ordinary working day, there must be added to the employee's period of annual leave time equivalent to the ordinary time which the employee would have worked if the day had not been a holiday.
- 38.2.3 Where an employee, without reasonable excuse and without providing evidence satisfactory to the employer, is absent from employment on the working day or part of the working day prior to the commencement of annual leave, or fails to resume work at the ordinary starting time on the working day immediately following the last day of the period of annual leave, the employee shall not be entitled to payment for the public holidays which fall within the period of annual leave.

38.3 Notice required

38.3.1 Notice of leave to be taken

At least 28 days' notice shall be given to an employee of the requirement to commence leave. If such notice is withdrawn by the employer and the employee consequently postpones the taking of annual leave, the employee shall be compensated by the employer for any reasonable out-of-pocket loss occasioned by the postponement.

38.3.2 How leave is to be taken

[38.3.2 inserted by PR966109 ppc 19Dec05]

Annual leave is to be given by the employer and taken by the employee in one or more of the following ways:

- 38.3.2(a) in one period of four weeks;
- 38.3.2(b) in two periods, one of three weeks and the other of one week;
- 38.3.2(c) in 10 singular days and one period of two weeks;
- 38.3.2(d) in any other way agreed to between the employer and the employee.

38.4 Time when leave to be granted

- 38.4.1 Any leave to which an employee may become entitled shall be granted by the employer within four calendar months of its becoming due.

- 38.4.2 Provided that if, because of circumstances outside the employer's control, an employer considers it impossible to grant leave to an employee within the period set out in clause 38.4.1, the employer may by agreement with the employee postpone the leave until a later date.
- 38.4.3 Provided further that, in very exceptional circumstances, payment may be made for the whole or any part of the leave such as has been prescribed by agreement between the employer and the employee concerned.
- 38.4.4 Where an employee has become entitled to annual leave, but leaves or is dismissed for any cause before the leave is granted, the employee shall be paid wages in lieu of that leave at the appropriate rate under 38.1.

38.5 Leave to be given and taken

The annual leave provided for by this clause shall be allowed and shall be taken, and except as provided in 38.4 payment shall not be made or accepted in lieu of annual leave. If an employer fails to grant leave within the period of any postponement in accordance with 38.4, and is convicted on that ground of a breach of this award and the employee is not a consenting party to such failure, the employer shall, in addition to the wages payable under 38.6, also pay to such employee a further sum equal to the wages payable under 38.6.

38.6 Payment for period of annual leave

- 38.6.1 Each employee before going on leave shall be paid the wages which would have applied in respect of the ordinary time the employee would have worked if leave had not been taken during the relevant period.
- 38.6.2 Subject to 38.7 each employee shall, where applicable, have the amount of wages to be received for annual leave calculated by including the following where applicable:
- 38.6.2(a) the rate applicable as prescribed by 15, 16 and 21; and
 - 38.6.2(b) subject to clause 38.7.2 the rate prescribed for work by 33.5 according to the employee's roster or projected roster.
 - 38.6.2(c) the rate payable pursuant to clause 24 calculated on a daily basis which the employee would have received for ordinary time during the relevant period.
 - 38.6.2(d) any other rate to which the employee is entitled in accordance with the contract of employment for ordinary hours of work; provided that this provision shall not operate so as to include any payment which is of a similar nature to or is paid for the same reasons as or is paid in lieu of those payments prescribed by clauses 19 items K to P, 37 and 24, nor any payment which might have become payable to the employee as reimbursement for expenses incurred.

38.7 Loading on annual leave

During a period of annual leave an employee shall receive a loading calculated on the rate of wage prescribed by 38.6.2(a). The loading shall be as follows:

- 38.7.1 An employee who would have worked within the ordinary spread of hours prescribed under 33.2 and 33.3 only had the employee not been on leave, a loading of 17.5%.
- 38.7.2 An employee who would have worked ordinary hours as agreed pursuant to 33.3 had the employee not been on leave - a loading of at least 17.5%.

[38.7.3 substituted by PR911091 ppc 09Nov01]

- 38.7.3 Provided that where the employee would have received the loading prescribed in 34.9 had the employee not been on leave during the relevant period and such loading would have entitled the employee to a greater amount than the loading of 17.5% the greater amount shall be added to the rate of wage prescribed by clause 38.6.2(a) in lieu of the 17.5% loading.
- 38.7.4 The loading prescribed in this clause shall not apply to proportionate leave on termination.

38.8 Leave in advance

- 38.8.1 An employer may grant annual leave to an employee before the right to leave has accrued, but where leave is taken in such a case a further period of annual leave shall not commence to accrue until the expiration of the twelve months in respect of which annual leave had been taken before it accrued.
- 38.8.2 Where leave has been granted to an employee pursuant to 38.8.1 before the right to the leave has accrued, and the employee subsequently leaves or is discharged from the service of the employer before completing the twelve months' continuous service in respect of which the leave was granted, the employer may, for each one complete month of the qualifying period of twelve months not served by the employee, deduct from whatever remuneration is payable upon the termination of the employment one-twelfth of the amount of wages paid on account of the annual leave. The amount deducted shall not include any sums paid for any of the holidays prescribed in clause 42 of this award.
- 38.8.3 Provided that, in cases where leave in advance is granted at the request of the employee, the employer may when making payment under 38.6 withhold from the employee a sum equal to one-twelfth of the payment for each complete month of the qualifying period not served by the employee at the time of going on such leave and retain such sum until the expiration of such qualifying period.

38.9 Proportionate payment on termination

38.9.1 Proportionate payment shall be made to an employee on weekly hiring who after one month of continuous service in the first qualifying twelve-monthly period:

38.9.1(a) leaves the employment or whose employment is terminated by the employer through no fault of the employee, or

38.9.1(b) after twelve months' continuous service with an employer leaves the employment of the employer or whose employment is terminated by the employer for any reason; and such payment shall be made on the basis of 2.923 hours for each five ordinary working days worked of continuous service, for which leave has not been granted under this clause, and shall be paid at the appropriate rate of wage prescribed by 38.6.

38.10 Calculation of continuous service

38.10.1 Continuity of service shall be deemed to be continuous notwithstanding:

38.10.1(a) any interruption or determination of the employment by the employer if such interruption or determination has been made with the intention of avoiding obligations in respect of annual leave;

38.10.1(b) any absence from work of not more than fourteen days in twelve months on account of sickness or accident (proof of which shall be on the employee);

38.10.1(c) any absence on account of leave granted, imposed or agreed to by the employer; or

38.10.1(d) any absence due to reasonable cause (including absences on account of sickness or accident of more than fourteen days), proof of which shall be on the employee.

Provided that in cases of personal sickness or accident or absence with reasonable cause, the employee, to become entitled to the benefit of this clause shall, if practicable, inform the employer in writing within 24 hours after the commencement of such absence of the inability to attend for duty and, as far as practicable, the nature of the illness, injury or cause and the estimated duration of the absence.

38.10.2 In calculating a period of twelve months' continuous service:

38.10.2(a) any annual leave taken during that period; or

38.10.2(b) any absences of the kind mentioned in 38.10.1(a) and 38.10.1(b)

shall be counted as part of such period;

38.10.2(c) in respect of absences of the kind mentioned in 38.10.1(c) and 38.10.1(d) the employee shall serve such additional period as part of the qualification for annual leave as will equal the period of such absences;

38.10.3 where an employee is absent from work for any cause whatever, the employer shall notify the employee within fourteen days of the employee's return to work whether the employer regards such absence as breaking, either conditionally or unconditionally, the employee's continuity of service. If the employer does not give such notice within fourteen days, the absence shall not be deemed to be such a break. The employer shall give the notification to the employee by having it delivered to the employee in writing.

38.10.4 where an employee has been absent from employment and the employer has notified the employee that the absence is regarded as a break in continuity of service, the employee may within fourteen days of notification from the employer invoke the Settlement of Disputes procedure prescribed in clause 10.

38.11 Calculation of month

For the purposes of this clause, a month shall be reckoned as commencing with the beginning of the first day of the employment, or period of employment, in question and as ending at the beginning of the day which, in the latest month in question, has the same date number as that which the commencing day had in its month, and if there be no such day in such subsequent month shall be reckoned as ending at the end of such subsequent month.

38.12 Successor or assignee or transmittee

Where the employer is a successor or assignee or transmittee of a business, if an employee was in the employment of the employer's predecessor at the time when the employer became such successor or assignee or transmittee, the employee shall for the purpose of this clause be deemed to be in the service of the employer for the period during which he or she was in service of the predecessor.

38.13 Annual close-down

Where an employer bound by this award is required by contractual arrangements to cease operations because of the closing-down of a plant or sections of a plant for the purposes of allowing annual leave, the following provisions shall apply:

- 38.13.1 The employer may, by giving to the employees concerned not less than one month's notice of the intention to do so, stand off for the duration of the close down all those employees concerned and allow to those who are not then qualified for a full entitlement to annual leave for twelve months' continuous service pursuant to 38.1 hereof, paid leave on a proportionate basis at the appropriate rate of wage as prescribed by 38.6 calculated on the basis of 2.923 hours for each five ordinary working days worked of continuous service.
- 38.13.2 An employee who has then qualified for a full entitlement to annual leave for twelve months' continuous service pursuant to 38.1, and has also completed a further month or more of continuous service shall be allowed annual leave, and shall be paid at the appropriate rate of wage as prescribed by 38.6. In addition, for the period of service in excess of twelve months the entitlement shall be calculated on the basis of 2.923 hours for each five ordinary working days worked of continuous service, which shall also be paid at the appropriate wage rate as prescribed by 38.6.
- 38.13.3 The next twelve monthly qualifying period of each employee affected by such close down shall commence from the day on which the plant or section or sections concerned is reopened for work.
- 38.13.4 If in the first year of service with an employer an employee is allowed proportionate annual leave under 38.13.1 and subsequently within that year leaves the employment or the employment is terminated by the employer through no fault of the employee, the employee shall be entitled to the benefit of the 38.9, subject to adjustment for any proportionate leave which the employee may have been allowed as aforesaid.

38.14 Annual leave and sick leave

If an employee falls sick on annual leave and produces at the time satisfactory medical evidence, the employee may be granted at a convenient time additional leave equivalent to the period of sickness falling within the annual leave, and such absence shall be recorded as sick leave.

Where such annual leave has been re-credited as sick leave no leave loadings shall be payable when the annual leave so credited is again taken by the employee.

38.15 Rostered day off falling during annual leave

Upon an employee taking annual leave, the employee's work cycle in respect of which the employee becomes entitled to a weekly accrual for a rostered day off pursuant to 33.6, shall be suspended and the employee shall not become entitled to further accrual until return from leave. Upon resumption of work, the entitlement period for accrual shall resume and the employee shall be entitled to be rostered to take a day off, and shall so take a rostered day off upon completing the balance of the work cycle.

41. PARENTAL LEAVE

[41:Preamble substituted by PR911868 ppc 20Sep01]

Subject to the terms of this clause employees are entitled to maternity, paternity and adoption leave and to work part-time in connection with the birth or adoption of a child.

- (a) the employee or employee’s spouse is pregnant; or
- (b) the employee is or has been immediately absent on parental leave.

The rights of an employer in relation to engagement and re-engagement of casual employees are not affected, other than in accordance with this clause.

- 41.3.3 An employee will not be in breach of this clause if failure to give the stipulated notice is occasioned by confinement occurring earlier than the presumed date.
- 41.3.4 Subject to 41.2.1 and unless agreed otherwise between the employer and employee, an employee may commence parental leave at any time within six weeks immediately prior to the expected date of birth.
- 41.3.5 Where an employee continues to work within the six week period immediately prior to the expected date of birth, or where the employee elects to return to work within six weeks after the birth of the child, an employer may require the employee to provide a medical certificate stating that she is fit to work on her normal duties.

41.4.2 The employee will not be in breach of 41.4.1 if the failure to give the required period of notice is because of the birth occurring earlier than expected, the death of the mother of the child, or other compelling circumstances.

41.5 Adoption leave

41.5.1 The employee will notify the employer at least ten weeks in advance of the date of commencement of adoption leave and the period of leave to be taken. An employee may commence adoption leave prior to providing such notice, where through circumstances beyond the control of the employee, the adoption of a child takes place earlier.

41.5.2 Before commencing adoption leave, an employee will provide the employer with a statutory declaration stating:

41.5.2(a) the employee is seeking adoption leave to become the primary care-giver of the child;

41.5.2(b) particulars of any period of adoption leave sought or taken by the employee's spouse; and

41.5.2(c) that for the period of adoption leave the employee will not engage in any conduct inconsistent with their contract of employment.

41.5.3 An employer may require an employee to provide confirmation from the appropriate government authority of the placement.

41.5.4 Where the placement of a child for adoption with an employee does not proceed or continue, the employee will notify the employer immediately and the employer will nominate a time not exceeding four weeks from receipt of notification for the employee's return to work.

41.5.5 An employee will not be in breach of this clause as a consequence of failure to give the stipulated periods of notice if such failure results from a requirement of an adoption agency to accept earlier or later placement of a child, the death of a spouse, or other compelling circumstances.

41.5.6 An employee seeking to adopt a child is entitled to unpaid leave for the purpose of attending any compulsory interviews or examinations as are necessary as part of the adoption procedure. The employee and the employer should agree on the length of the unpaid leave. Where agreement cannot be reached, the employee is entitled to take up to two days unpaid leave. Where paid leave is available to the employee, the employer may require the employee to take such leave instead.

41.6 Variation of period of parental leave

Unless agreed otherwise between the employer and employee, an employee may apply to their employer to change the period of parental leave on one occasion. Any such change to be notified at least four weeks prior to the commencement of the changed arrangements.

41.7 Parental leave and other entitlements

An employee may in lieu of or in conjunction with parental leave, access any annual leave or long service leave entitlements which they have accrued subject to the total amount of leave not exceeding 52 weeks.

41.8 Transfer to a safe job

41.8.1 Where an employee is pregnant and, in the opinion of a registered medical practitioner, illness or risks arising out of the pregnancy or hazards connected with the work assigned to the employee make it inadvisable for the employee to continue at her present work, the employee will, if the employer deems it practicable, be transferred to a safe job at the rate and on the conditions attaching to that job until the commencement of maternity leave.

41.8.2 If the transfer to a safe job is not practicable, the employee may elect, or the employer may require the employee to commence parental leave for such period as is certified necessary by a registered medical practitioner.

41.9 Returning to work after a period of parental leave

41.9.1 An employee will notify of their intention to return to work after a period of parental leave at least four weeks prior to the expiration of the leave.

[41.9.2 substituted by PR911868 ppc 20Sep01]

41.9.2 Subject to sub-clause 41.9.4, an employee will be entitled to the position which they held immediately before proceeding on parental leave. In the case of an employee transferred to a safe job pursuant to clause 41.8, the employee will be entitled to return to the position they held immediately before such transfer.

41.9.3 Where such position no longer exists but there are other positions available which the employee is qualified for and is capable of performing, the employee will be entitled to a position as nearly comparable in status and pay to that of their former position.

[41.9.4 inserted by PR911868 ppc 20Sep01]

41.9.4 An eligible casual employee who is employed by a labour hire company who performs work for a client of the labour hire company will be entitled to the position which they held immediately before proceeding on parental leave.

Where such a position is no longer available, but there are other positions available that the employee is qualified for and is capable of performing, the employer shall make all reasonable attempts to return the employee to a position comparable in status and pay to that of the employee's former position.

41.10 Replacement employees

41.10.1 A replacement employee is an employee specifically engaged or temporarily promoted or transferred, as a result of an employee proceeding on parental leave.

41.10.2 Before an employer engages a replacement employee the employer must inform that person of the temporary nature of the employment and of the rights of the employee who is being replaced.

41.11. Right to request

[41.11 inserted by PR966109 ppc 19Dec05]

41.11 An employee entitled to parental leave pursuant to the provisions of clause 41 may request the employer to allow the employee:

41.11.1 to extend the period of simultaneous unpaid parental leave provided for in clause 41.2 up to a maximum of eight weeks;

41.11.2 to extend the period of unpaid parental leave provided for in clause 41.2 by a further continuous period of leave not exceeding 12 months;

41.11.3 to return from a period of parental leave on a part-time basis until the child reaches school age, to assist the employee in reconciling work and parental responsibilities.

41.11.4 The employer shall consider the request having regard to the employee's circumstances and, provided the request is genuinely based on the employee's parental responsibilities, may only refuse the request on reasonable grounds related to the effect on the workplace or the employer's business. Such grounds might include cost, lack of adequate replacement staff, loss of efficiency and the impact on customer service.

41.11.5 Employee's request and employer's decision to be recorded in writing

The employee's request and the employer's decision made under section 41.11.3 must be recorded in writing.

41.11.6 Request to return to work part-time

Where an employee wishes to make a request under 41.11.3, such a request must be made as soon as possible but no less than seven weeks prior to the date upon which the employee is due to return from parental leave.

41.12 Right to request extension

[41.12 inserted by PR966109 ppc 19Dec05]

Where an employee takes leave under clause 41.2 (Basic Entitlement) or clause 41.11 (Right to request), unless otherwise agreed between the employer and employee, and employee may apply to their employer to change the period of parental leave on one occasion. Any such change is to be notified as soon as possible, but no less than 4 weeks prior to the commencement of the changed arrangements. Nothing in this clause shall detract from any entitlements set out in clause 41.2.

41.13 Communication during parental leave

[41.13 inserted by PR966109 ppc 19Dec05]

- 41.13.1 Where an employee is on parental leave and a definite decision has been made to introduce significant change at the workplace, the employer shall take reasonable steps to:
- 41.13.2 Make information available in relation to any significant effect the change will have on the status or responsibility level of the position the employee held before commencing parental leave; and
- 41.13.3 Provide an opportunity for the employee to discuss any significant effect the change will have on the status or responsibility level of the position the employee held before commencing parental leave.
- 41.13.4 The employee shall take reasonable steps to inform the employer about any significant matter that will affect the employee's decision regarding the duration of parental leave to be taken, whether the employee intends to return to work and whether the employee intends to request to return to work on a part-time basis.
- 41.13.5 The employee shall also notify the employer of changes of address or other contact details which might affect the employer's capacity to comply with 41.13.1.

42. PUBLIC HOLIDAYS

42.1 An employee on weekly hiring shall be entitled to public holidays on the following days:

42.1.1 New Year's Day, Good Friday, Easter Saturday, Easter Monday, Christmas Day and Boxing Day (except in South Australia, where Proclamation Day shall apply); and

42.1.2 the following days, as prescribed in the relevant States, Territories and localities:

42.1.3(e) Tasmania: The day shall be allowed on Regatta Day in southern Tasmania and on Bank Holiday in northern Tasmania.

42.1.3(f) Western Australia: The day shall be allowed on Foundation Day (State).

[42.2.1 varied by S1735 from 15Dec99]

42.2.1 When Christmas Day is a Saturday or a Sunday, a holiday in lieu of that day shall be observed on 27 December. In relation to full time workers whose ordinary hours are regularly rostered to be worked on a Saturday or Sunday, when substitution occurs because Christmas Day falls on a weekend, ordinary hours worked on 25 December will attract an additional loading of half a normal day's wage for a full day's work in addition to the Saturday/Sunday rate and the employee will also be entitled to the benefits of the substituted public holiday.

42.2.2 When Boxing Day is a Saturday or a Sunday, a holiday in lieu of that day shall be observed on 28 December.

42.2.3 When New Year's Day or Australia Day is a Saturday or Sunday, a holiday in lieu of that day shall be observed on the next Monday.

42.3 Where in a State, Territory or locality, public holidays are declared or prescribed on days other than those set out in 42.1 and 42.2, those days shall constitute additional holidays for the purpose of this award.

42.4.1 By agreement between the employer and the majority of employees in the relevant enterprise or section of the enterprise, an alternative day may be taken as the public holiday in lieu of any of the prescribed days.

42.4.2 An employee and individual employee may agree to the employee taking another day as the public holiday in lieu of the day which is being observed as the public holiday in the enterprise or relevant section of the enterprise.

42.5 Where an employee is absent from his or her employment on the working day before or the working day after a public holiday without reasonable excuse or without the consent of the employer, he or she will not be entitled to payment for the holiday.

42.6.1 For all time worked by a weekly employee on such holidays, payment shall be made at the following rates:

42.6.1(a) On Good Friday and the Christmas Day holiday - double time.

42.6.1(b) On any other holiday - ordinary time and a half.

42.6.1(c) The minimum payment shall be as for four hours' work.

42.6.2 Payment for work on a holiday shall be in addition to any amount payable in respect of the weekly wage. Provided that, if an employee is required to work on a holiday other than Good Friday and Christmas Day during hours which, if the day were not a holiday, would be outside the range of ordinary working time as mentioned in clause 33, the employee shall be paid for such hours at double time and a half, instead of the ordinary time and a half as otherwise provided in this clause. Provided further that an employee shall be paid treble time for all overtime worked on Good Friday and Christmas Day.

42.7.1 For all time worked by a casual employee on such holidays, payment shall be made at the following rates:

42.7.1(a) On Good Friday and the Christmas Day holiday - treble time.

42.7.1(b) On any other holiday - double time and a half.

42.7.2 The minimum payment shall be as for four hours' work. As well as the payment prescribed in this clause, the additional rate prescribed by 12.5 shall be paid.

42.8 Where a weekly employee is entitled to any holiday prescribed by this clause, his employer shall notify the employee on the working day immediately preceding the holiday if the employee's services are required on that day, and if such notice is not given the employee shall be entitled to take the holiday without deduction of pay.

42.9 If an employer intends to carry on business on a day generally observed as a holiday although not prescribed as such in this award, the employer shall not be entitled to make a deduction from the wages of any weekly employee who fails to present for duty on that day unless the employer has given the employee notice of the intention to carry on business on that day.

42.10 For the purpose of this clause, eight hours shall be deemed to be a day's pay.

43. TRAINING

43.1 Where, as a result of consultation, it is agreed by the employer that additional training should be undertaken by an employee, that training may be undertaken either on or off the job. Provided that if the training is undertaken during ordinary working hours the employee concerned shall not suffer any loss of pay. The employer shall not unreasonably withhold such paid training leave.

43.2 Any costs associated with standard fees for prescribed courses and prescribed textbooks (excluding those textbooks which are available in the employer's technical library) incurred in connection with the undertaking of training shall be reimbursed by the employer upon production of evidence of such expenditure. Provided that reimbursement of standard fees may be made at the completion of the prescribed course or annually, whichever is the earlier, subject to reports of attendance at such courses.

43.3 Travel costs incurred by an employee undertaking training in accordance with this clause which exceed those normally incurred in travelling to and from work shall be reimbursed by the employer.

[Common rule declared by Print K1417 from 10Jan92]

1. The Transport Workers Award, 1983 as varied to date shall be a common rule of the industry in or in connection with the transport of goods, wares, merchandise, material or anything whatsoever whether in its raw state or natural state, wholly or partly manufactured state or of a solid or liquid or gaseous nature or otherwise, and/or livestock in the Northern Territory and shall be binding on all employers in the said industry in respect of the employment by them of employees in the classifications for which provision is made in the said award and shall be binding on all such employees.

2. The declaration shall not apply to:

- (i) the Australian Government in respect of employees under the Public Service Act 1922;
- (ii) any employer in respect of employees covered by the Northern Territory Public Service Act;
- (iii) any employer in respect of employees covered by the Northern Territory Teaching Service Act 1981;
- (iv) any employer in respect of employees covered by the Northern Territory Fire Service Act 1983;
- (v) any employer in respect of employees in the mining and processing industry;
- (vi) any employer in respect of employees covered by any other award or agreement made under the Industrial Relations Act 1988.

3. The foregoing declaration shall operate from midnight of 10 January 1992.

DECLARATION - VICTORIA

[Common rule declared by PR950673 ppc 01Jan05]

Further to the decision issued by the Commission on 17 August 2004 [PR950653] and pursuant to ss.141 and 493A the Commission makes the following declaration for a common rule award:

1. In this Declaration:

“the award” means the Transport Workers Award 1998 as varied from time to time;

“employees” means employees in the industry who perform work of a kind that is covered by the award;

“employers” means employers who employ employees;

“the industry” means the industry of or in connection with the transport of goods, wares, merchandise, material or anything whatsoever whether in its raw state or natural state, wholly or partly manufactured state or of a solid or liquid or gaseous nature or otherwise, and livestock.

2. That save for and subject to the matters referred to in clauses 4 to 10 below, the whole of the terms of the award except those specified in clause 3 below, shall be:

- 2.1 a common rule for the industry in Victoria and known as the Transport Workers Victorian Common Rule Award 2005;
 - 2.2 binding on all employers in respect of the employment by them of employees;
 - 2.3 binding on all employees; and
 - 2.4 binding on the Transport Workers' Union of Australia and other registered organisations respondent to the award.
3. The following clauses of the award are not included in the Transport Workers Victorian Common Rule Award 2005:
 - 3.1 clause 5 - Duration of award;
 - 3.2 clause 6.1 of Incidence;
 - 3.3 clause 7.1 insofar as it refers to employers bound by the Award, and clause 7.2 of Parties bound and area of operation; and
 - 3.4 clause 44 – Special exemption.
 4. Subject to 4.1 to 4.5 below, all provisions in the Transport Workers Victorian Common Rule Award 2005 are to operate from 1 January 2005.
 - 4.1 With respect to annual leave, only periods of annual leave commencing on or after 31 January 2005 attract leave loading.
 - 4.2 With respect to redundancy payments for employees of employers who have less than 15 employees, only service on or after 1 January 2005 is to be taken into account for the purpose of calculating 'service'.
 - 4.3 With respect to redundancy payments for employees of employers who have 15 employees or more, only service on or after 1 January 2004 is to be taken into account for the purpose of calculating 'service'. [Note: the agreement in respect of this issue is without prejudice to the position a party may put in roping-in proceedings.]
 - 4.4 Any accident make-up pay clause is to apply in relation to any injury on or after 3 August 2004.
 - 4.5 The wages clauses (including all allowances and penalty payments) are to commence operation from the first pay period on or after Monday 3 January 2005 provided that in all cases the wages clauses commence operation no later than 5 January 2005.
 5. The Transport Workers Victorian Common Rule Award 2005 shall not apply to employers respondent by any means to any other award of the Commission in respect of the employment by them of employees covered by that award.

6. This declaration shall not apply to a person with a disability who is eligible for a Disability Support Pension and who is employed by a supported employment service that receives funding under the Disability Services Act 1986 (Cth) to provide support for that person. [See Note 1 below.]
7. An employer who is making superannuation contributions into a complying superannuation fund, within the meaning of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 (Cth), on behalf of an employee covered by this declaration prior to the date of effect of this declaration is exempt from any provision in the award which specifies the fund or funds into which superannuation contributions are to be paid. [See Note 2 below.]
8. In the event of a dispute about the entitlement of an employer to set-off entitlements and benefits required to be provided under a contract of employment made prior to the date of this declaration against entitlements and benefits required to be provided under the Transport Workers Victorian Common Rule Award 2005, the matter may be referred to a Board of Reference consisting of a Member of the Commission which shall determine whether or not such a set-off should be permitted having regard to what is fair and equitable in all the circumstances of the case, without regard to technicalities and legal forms.

An appeal lies from a decision of a Board of Reference to a Full Bench of the Commission.

This clause shall apply for a period of twelve months from the commencement date of the Transport Workers Victorian Common Rule Award 2005.

Any registered organisation bound by the terms of the Transport Workers Victorian Common Rule Award 2005 shall be notified of the time and date of hearing in relation to any application made pursuant to this provision.

9. Nothing in this declaration reduces or in any way detracts from any accrued rights to any forms of leave including sick leave, annual leave, long service leave or parental leave to which employees or any of them have become entitled by accrual or otherwise prior to the commencement date in clause 10 below.

10. This declaration shall be an award of the Commission, shall come into force on 1 January 2005 and shall remain in force for a period of 3 months and thereafter in accordance with the Act. [See Note 3 below.]

Note 1

1. Disability Support Pension means the Commonwealth pension scheme to provide income security for persons with a disability as provided for under the Social Security Act 1991 (Cth), as amended from time to time, or any successor to that scheme.

2. The intention of this provision is limited to preventing the award from applying to sheltered workshops (i.e. supported employment services) - it does not prevent the award from applying to employees with disabilities in open employment.

3. Leave is reserved for any party to have this issue reconsidered in the light of any developments in the national process which is currently considering workplace relations issues for sheltered workshops. This national process includes the Disability Sector National Industry Consultative Council and any related applications that seek award coverage for sheltered workshops.

Note 2

1. The purpose of the exception above is to maintain the status quo in respect of employers who, as at the date of effect of the common rule declaration, are making superannuation contributions into a complying superannuation fund. These employers will not be required to change their existing arrangements. Nor will there be any requirement for the existing arrangements to be the subject of an agreement between the employer and employees. For the avoidance of doubt, the exception continues to apply to employers who are making superannuation contributions to complying superannuation funds which are successor funds (as defined in Regulation 1.03 of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Regulations 1994, or as amended or replaced by other legislation) into which benefits are transferred, after the date of effect of the common rule declaration, in accordance with the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 and the Regulations thereunder. Further, “existing arrangements” includes the making of contributions to such funds.

2. The exception is in respect of current and future employees of the employers who are entitled to the benefit of the exemption.

3. The exception does not apply to new businesses which are established after the date on which the award is declared to have effect as a common rule.

4. The exception only applies to employers who are required to apply the terms of the award by virtue of the Common Rule declaration. It does not apply to employers who are named respondents to the award or who are parties bound by virtue of the membership of an employer organisation.

5. The exception applies subject to any Commonwealth legislation to the contrary.

Note 3

Subject to s.113 of the Workplace Relations Act 1996 and any order of the Commission, an award dealing with particular matters continues in force until a new award is made dealing with the same matters (see s.148 of the Workplace Relations Act 1996).
